LCS282 CORNWALL COUNCIL LICENCES

(1) Variation to Licence, Pasty Shack, 60 Church Street, Falmouth

The Chairman was disappointed that the applicant had not attended to present their application. He reported that an extension of hours was sought for late night refreshments from 2300 hours to 0300 hours Monday to Sunday. The applicant had submitted a supporting document to the request which was read by the Committee. The Police Licensing Officer objected to the application in its entirety as she believed another late night refreshment premises in Church Street would have a negative effect on crime and disorder.

It was proposed by Councillor Bonney, seconded by Councillor Saunby and

RESOLVED that the Council objects to the application to vary the licence, supporting the view of the Police as a further late night refreshment premises in Church Street would have a negative effect on crime and disorder.

(2) Variation to Licence, Falmouth Service Station, 60 Dracaena Avenue, Falmouth

The Chairman was disappointed that the applicant had not attended to present their application. The variation request sought an extension to sell alcohol to 24 hours daily, amendment to condition and alterations to premises.

It was proposed by Councillor Saunby, seconded by Councillor Morgan and

RESOLVED that the Council objects to the application to vary the licence and extended hours would have a negative impact on crime and disorder, and the conditions under the heading 'The protection of children from harm' and 'adult entertainment' were still relevant.

The Committee were unclear regarding the third aspect of the proposed variation and to the alterations to the premises that were proposed.

There being no further business to transact the Chairman declared the Meeting closed at 6.45pm.
