LSC330 CORNWALL COUNCIL LICENCES

The Warehouse, 38B Arwenack Street, Falmouth

To consider variation to license to include off sale of alcohol with a reasonable food order.

Darren Beconsall advised that he needed to adapt his business to the Covid situation and there is demand for sealed beer with food takeaways. Collections from the restaurant to be from 9am to 10pm with no deliveries.

It was proposed by Councillor Parker, seconded by Councillor Eva and

RESOLVED that the Council raises no objection to the license variation as the Council needs to support businesses to enable them to continue to trade.

Frankiss Ltd, 50 Arwenack Street, Falmouth

To consider minor variation to include off sales of alcohol and add conditions.

Rebecca Frankiss advised that she needed to adapt her business to the Covid situation and with no outside seating takeaways were the only option to continue trading.

It was proposed by Councillor Eva, seconded by Councillor Parker and

RESOLVED that the Council raises no objection to the license variation as the Council needs to support businesses to enable them to continue to trade.

Councillor Bonney joined the meeting at 320pm.

Lee Alexander trading as Falmouth Café Kernow

To consider street trading proposal at site 2, Pendennis Point on Saturdays and Sundays (off peak) and Mondays to Sundays (peak/Summertime). Proposed trading times 08:00 – 16:00 hours selling Cornish coffee, tea, frappes, milkshakes, cream teas and pasties.

Lee Alexander advised that he had identified that there was an opening for a café at Pendennis Point and he would not be in competition with the other traders who sold ice creams and he would be willing to share site 2. His produce would have a Cornish theme and would be locally sourced.

It was proposed by Councillor Eva, seconded by Councillor Parker and

RESOLVED that the Council raises no objection
subject that the Pitch is shared with Falmouth Dairy.

Lorina Thomas trading as Falmouth Dairy

To consider street trading proposal at site 2, Pendennis Point from grant of Consent to December 2020 Mondays to Sundays from 10:00 – 21:00 hours selling Ice Cream/cold drinks (cans).

It was proposed by Councillor Eva, seconded by Councillor Parker and

RESOLVED that the Council raises no objection.

There being no further business to transact the Chair declared the Meeting closed at 3.45pm.
