The Community Chest Fund was duly noted and that Councillor spending commitments needed to be made by 31st March 2022.

F6611 PROJECT AND GRANT UPDATES

1. Kimberley Park Lodge - Simon Neild of Source FM provided an update on the development proposals, the partnership with the Council would see café provision indoor and outdoor, premises for Source FM the local community radio station and community recording and rehearsal space, retaining the historic front aspect of the premises, with environmental provision and noise attenuation. The Culture Services Director advised that the rear aspect of the premises was in poor condition and needed to be replaced, the premises had been unused for some time. The Council had already supported the planning application.
2. Town Vitality Fund – The Director of Cultural Services reported a brief had been created that included the economic benefits and smarter towns technologies which was now being scoped for sign off by the Council pre-tender.
3. Website – the contract opportunity had received a very good response and those tenders were now to be evaluated.
4. Changing Places – the bidding criteria had changed, and Cornwall Council were awaiting bid assessment.
5. Prince of Wales Pier – Councillor Kirkham gave an update of structural issues and replacement options and costs. Cornwall Council would consult on those.
6. Place Shaping – Councillor Kirkham gave an update from the Place Shaping Board.
7. Pendennis Leisure CIC – The Chair updated on the local community bid submitted for the operation of Ships and Castles Leisure Centre that would be assessed by Cornwall Council on 14th February 2022.
8. Bus Shelters – the contract variation with Fernbank was agreed that included the pollinator encouraging roof treatments and improved electronic advertising and messaging in some units as well as a better-defined cleansing schedule and notification.
9. Cornwall Council Payments Facilities – Cornwall Council had yet to review this matter.

F6612 CCLA PUBLIC SECTOR DEPOSIT FUND

It was noted that the Council's investment returns had returned to pre-Covid levels.

F6613 CORNWALL COUNCIL PENSION FUND

The Cornwall Pension Fund Strategy Funding Statement was noted.

F6614 PRECEPT SUBMISSION

The Responsible Financial Officer advised that Cornwall Council's amendment to the tax base would reduce the Town Council tax precept rise for 2022-23. Illustrative 1.83% rise for Band D properties.

F6615 FALMOUTH ROTARY

It was proposed by Councillor Eva, seconded by Councillor Jewell and

RESOLVED that Falmouth Rotary be permitted to utilise the Council's Goodbox digital card payment systems for their fund collections at occasional events.
