All Those Who Suffered & Lost

Those Who Still Suffer Today

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY FALMOUTH SERVICE

SUNDAY 9TH NOVEMBER 2025
KIMBERLEY PARK
10:45AM

Conducted by Reverend Geoff Davis

Parade Marshal
Mr Robert Ash

REMEMBRANCE

Remembrance honours those who have served and those who serve today to defend our democratic freedoms and way of life.

We unite across faiths, cultures and backgrounds to remember all those from Britain and the Commonwealth who have lost and suffered.

We pay tribute to the special contribution of families and of the emergency services.

We acknowledge innocent civilians who have lost their lives or suffered through conflicts and acts of terrorism.

Hymn – O God our Help in ages past

Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:

Under the shadow of your throne
Your saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is your arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood
Or Earth received her frame,
From everlasting you are God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in your sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the op'ning day.

Like flow'ry fields the nations stand,
Pleased with the morning light;
The flow'rs beneath the mower's hand
Lie with'ring ere 'tis night.

Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last
And our eternal home.
